Dry Cleaning Delivery - Practically Perfect in Every Way

IN THE NEWS!

Greetings Loyal Spit Spot Customers and Friends:

Kim's Korner:

I have returned from my Florida vacation revived and ready to serve you all! I trust that my family treated you well in my absence and I am glad to be back.

With the 4th of July coming up, I want to remind our Wednesday customers that we will be closed for the holiday. Our Wednesday pickups should email me if they would like to schedule a pickup on another day. For our Wednesday deliveries, we will return your items on Thursday unless you let us know you need them sooner.

Finally, this does not happen often, but I currently have an Express brown and white floral skirt that does not have an owner. If you are missing this skirt, please let me know so I may return it to you!

I trust you are all enjoying the summer. If you have any special needs around vacation time, please don't hesitate to let me know.

Meet Tony!

This month we have a tip and an educational tid-bit.

For the tip – when buying clothes, remember that one of the hardest items to dry clean is silk with dark/light contrasting colors next to each other. These items have an inherent risk of damage due to color bleeding. We try our best, but sometimes even that is not good enough.

Tid-Bit – Did you know that men's shirts are pressed when they are wet? If for some reason the material does not dry 100% during pressing, it can appear wrinkled by the time it gets to you. If this ever

That Hits the Spot! Our Monthly Specials --

Outrageous July Special is here! On the week of July 9th, stuff your bag as full as you can and we will charge a set price of $30 (or actual value, whichever is less).

For some of you, this has the potential to be HUGE. Simply stick a note in with your clothes that says "Stuffed for $30" to redeem this offer.

Congratulations to our June Contest Winner – Andy Martire

For our die hard Contest participants, we will continue this for a while (hopefully until you all win). Enter by July 30th to win up to $100 in free cleaning!
